Passenger Traffic Overview

Total passenger traffic in October 2018 increased by 4.5% YoY, primarily reflecting growth of 5.6% in Argentina, 4.9% in Italy and 14.2% in Armenia.

In Argentina, passenger traffic increased 5.6% YoY, mainly driven by a 16.2% growth in domestic traffic, which benefitted from the addition of several new frequencies to existing routes over the past 12 months. Challenging macro conditions continued to impact International and transit traffic which declined 11.8% and 4.9%, respectively. In addition, Norwegian Air Argentina and LASA started operations during the month. Norwegian opened two routes connecting Buenos Aires with Mendoza and Córdoba, and plans to open additional domestic routes in the coming months. LASA opened several domestic routes, operating from Neuquén Airport. JetSmart expects to initiate operations later in November with routes from Santiago de Chile. Importantly, in October El Palomar Airport was designated as an International Airport, and both FlyBondi and JetSmart anticipated they plan to start operating international routes from El Palomar to neighboring countries Uruguay, Paraguay and Chile in the coming months.

In Italy, passenger traffic increased 4.9%, mainly driven from an 8.0% traffic increase % in Pisa Airport, while Florence Airport passenger traffic was relatively flat YoY, mainly as a result of several flight cancellations due to adverse weather conditions. At Pisa Airport, international passengers increased 9.5% in the month, reflecting the continued good performance of routes to Russia, together with an increase in the load factor.

In Brazil, passenger traffic increased 1.3% YoY, driven by a 6.6% growth in domestic traffic reflecting the addition of new frequencies to existing routes in several destinations, partially offset by a decline in international traffic, mainly due to the currency depreciation.

In Uruguay, passenger traffic declined 3.5% mainly due to currency depreciation in neighboring countries Brazil and Argentina, which resulted in a decrease in passengers.

Cargo Volume and Aircraft Movements

Cargo volume declined 3.6% in October 2018 mainly impacted by a 12.7% decline in Argentina, partially offset by cargo volume growth across the majority of countries of operations.. In Armenia, cargo volume increased 9.2%, reverting the negative trend in the previous months.

Aircraft movements remained increased 2.3% in October 2018, mainly driven by Argentina, which increased 4.8%, followed by Ecuador, with an increase of 12.4%.

- (1) Starting May 3, 2018, 50% of international air traffic in Aeroparque Airport was reassigned to Ezeiza Airport, and the remaining 50% will be reassigned on April 1st, 2019. Aircrafts which travel to or from Uruguay are excluded from this resolution. These measures are part of resolution 183/2018 issued by the "Administración Nacional De Aviación Civil" (ANAC) which intends to optimize the management and infrastructure of Aeroparque Airport, taking into account the growing domestic aeronautical market and the seasonality of regional operations in Argentina.
- (2) El Palomar commenced operations in February 2018.

- (1) Starting May 3, 2018, 50% of international air traffic in Aeroparque Airport was reassigned to Ezeiza Airport, and the remaining 50% will be reassigned on April 1st, 2019. Aircrafts which travel to or from Uruguay are excluded from this resolution. These measures are part of resolution 183/2018 issued by the "Administración Nacional De Aviación Civil" (ANAC) which intends to optimize the management and infrastructure of Aeroparque Airport, taking into account the growing domestic aeronautical market and the seasonality of regional operations in Argentina.
- (2) El Palomar commenced operations in February 2018.
- (3) Transit traffic figures in 2018 are not comparable to 2017 as transit traffic at Aeroparque Airport in Argentina was recorded within international and domestic traffic. Starting April 2017, transit traffic at this airport is shown separately.
